memories about my two children too. Please feel free to leave a comment.In June of 2010, the three-time World Championships silver medalist, at an event in Lausanne, finally ended her career. She had been training for that moment for the last two years: enough was enough. Then, exactly two years later, she competed for the first time in a post-retirement ceremony in Geneva, Switzerland, in front of over 500 spectators. Perhaps this is why, after one year of training and thought, she decided to join forces with Tina Maze this year: to return to the sport where it all began. After barely a single season back, it is already a matter of history that they have both registered their first win in the
